About NACS

Formed in 1982, The National Association of Chimney Sweeps (NACS) was the first ever UK Chimney Sweeping Association. The NACS was put together by Chimney Sweeps in order to promote high standards for the sweeping industry, including the inspection and maintenance of Chimneys. With over 700 Members, the NACS is recommended by all major fuel organisations, including the Solid Fuel Association, HETAS, and OFTEC.

The NACS owns and runs its own Chimney Sweeping Training Centre, appropriately named the “National Chimney Training Centre” which is conveniently based in Stone, Staffordshire. The National Chimney Training Centre is a HETAS Approved Training Centre, where HETAS Courses can be attended at, as well as other Chimney related training courses.

NACS Members work strictly to the NACS Code of Conduct © 1982 and the National Code of Practice for the cleaning of Chimneys. On completion of work, NACS Sweeps issue a NACS Certificate of Chimney Sweeping, and recommend when future cleaning is necessary.

Other Training Courses at the National Chimney Training Centre
